Islamic creed - Jinn and Magic - Lesson (1-7): Sorcery and defraudation

Praise be to Allah, the Lord of Creations, and Peace and blessings be upon our prophet Muhammad, the faithful and the honest.

Oh, Allah, we know nothing but what You teach us. You are the All-Knower, the Wise. Oh Allah, teach us what is good for us, and benefit us from what You taught us, and increase our knowledge. Show us the righteous things as righteous and help us to do them, and show us the bad things as bad and help us to keep away from them.

O Allah our Lord, lead us out from the depths of darkness and illusion, unto the lights of erudition and knowledge, and from the muddy shallows of lusts unto the heavens of Your Vicinity.

Praise be to Allah, the Lord of the Worlds and may He bless and grant peace to Muhammad, the Faithful and the Honest.

Glory be to You, we have no knowledge except what you have taught us. Verily, it is You, the All-Knower, the All-Wise.

Teach us what is beneficial to us and let us benefit from it and increase our knowledge.

Show us the truth and help us follow it, and show us the untruth and help us avoid it. Let us be among those who listen and follow the best of what is said. Admit us by Your Mercy among Your righteous slaves.

Knowing and executing Quran are preferable values:

Dear brothers, breaking away from the series of lectures related to Aqidah (Creed), I will tackle, by Allah's decree, the topic of sorcery which has prevailed lately and spread widely in the Islamic world. Firstly, there should be a preface for this topic before I dig deeply in it, as it touches a wide social class in our societies.

What is science? The word "science" is a sparkling word about which there are one thousand and five hundred Ayahs in Quran that talk about it besides talking about reasoning. Better yet, science is a preferable value in the Quran, Allah says:

(Say: "Are those who know equal to those who know not?" It is only men of understanding who will remember (i.e. get a lesson from Allah's Signs and Verses).)

[Az-Zumar, 9]

(Allah will exalt in degree those of you who believe, and those who have been granted knowledge.)

[Al-Mujadilah, 11]

Hence, and according to the Quran, science and deeds are two preferable values in mankind, whereas according to mundane people, the preferable values are money, shrewdness, beauty, and power, Allah says:

(For all there will be degrees (or ranks) according to what they did.)

[Al-An'am, 132]

Definition of science:

What is science? The concise definition is: Science is the description that is concordant with reality and supported by a scientific proof. By renouncing the proof, science will turn into tradition and the latter is not acceptable in Aqidah due to Allah's saying:

(So know (O Muhammad) that La ilaha ill-Allah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah))

[Muhammad, 19]

In this Ayah, Allah didn't say: say (O Muhammad), rather he said:

(So know (O Muhammad) that La ilaha ill-Allah (none has the right to be worshipped but Allah))

[Muhammad, 19]

If we accept, for the sake of argument, that Allah accepts one's Aqidah if it is taken by tradition only, this will indicate that all the deviated sects will survive in the sight of Allah, as they have heard their leaders in their sects and religions saying something and they repeat it (and believe in it).

Again, science is the description that is concordant with reality and supported by a scientific proof. In more details it is defined as: detailed, ascribed, judged, decisive and evidence-based description which is supported by reality and proved by evidence.

Ascribed means: when you say: Khaled is generous, in this saying you ascribe generosity to Khaled, or like when you say Khaled attended, hence you are ascribing attendance to Khaled, or when you describe Khaled by saying: Khaled is brave. Hence, description, judging and ascribing mean to connect one thing to another, and science, in that aspect, is nothing but a connection, like the connection between expansion and heat, or expansion and pressure, for this kind of connection is unquestionable and it is true a hundred per cent.

Unlike science, doubt and delusion and probability are not conclusive, as the three of which bear possibility of accuracy in different ratios, whereas science should always be right 100% and there should be no possible mistake in it.

“Metals expand by heat”, this reality is conclusive in all five continents and from Adam till the Day of Resurrection, furthermore, it is supported by reality and is evidence-based.

Ignorance is everything that contradicts with reality, who is the ignorant? He is the one who is filled with wrong statements, and who is benighted within.

These statements are like those which are said by the classy and the so called “contemporary society” such as: “Immigration is a must”, “Women make half the society” and so forth. any statement which contradicts with Quran and Sunnah is considered as ignorance, and that is because it is not supported by reality.

Women are likable, and men are molded to love women, but if the woman exposed her body in the street, at work, in the factory, and in working place, she will cause a great embarrassment, not to mention the endless temptation, hence, any statement against this reality is considered as ignorance.

The ignorant is armed with thousands of statements but they are all wrong. Again: science is detailed, ascribed, judged, decisive and evidence-based description which is supported by reality and proved by evidence.

Superstitions and delusions are dangerous in people’s lives:

If we cancel the evidence, science will turn into tradition, if we cancel reality, it will turn into ignorance, and if we cancel its conclusive nature, it will turn into doubt, delusion, or possibility.

We have endless statements which contradict with reality, Allah says:

(Allah will destroy Riba (usury))

[Al-Baqarah, 276]

These are the words of the Creator of universes, however, one would say to you: “usury increases money” despite the Quranic fact that usury destroys money (as mentioned in the previous Ayah), but this statement are words of mundane people and it is a statement of ignorance. Allah might give time to him who deals with usury, but in the end Allah will destroy his money, Allah says:

(Allah will destroy Riba (usury) and will give increase for Sadaqat (deeds of charity, alms, etc.))

[Al-Baqarah, 276]

Others might say: spending money on the poor decreases it, however Allah says:

(Allah will destroy Riba (usury))

[Al-Baqarah, 276]

Spending on the poor increases money, and we, as Muslims, consider Quran and Sunnah our frame of reference, because the Quran is the word of Allah, and Sunnah is the interpretation of Allah's words by the infallible (Muhammad PBUH), Allah says:

(And whatsoever the Messenger (Muhammad) gives you, take it, and whatsoever he forbids you, abstain (from it))

[Al-Hashr, 7]

Hence, it is so dangerous that superstitions and delusions sneak to the life and minds of Muslims and that their behavior is affected by deviations. It is the disaster of all disasters to have doubts, myths, ignorance, and delusions in the minds of Muslims and to have deviation in their behavior.

Accordingly, consider the outstanding supplication that goes as follows: "Lead us out from the depths of darkness and illusion unto the lights of erudition and knowledge, and from the muddy shallows of lusts unto the heavens of Your Vicinity."

Most sayings in the Islamic field are rootless delusions:

Believe me dear brothers, if we were to gather all the statements which are circulating among the Islamic societies, and upon sifting them according to the measures of Quran and Sunnah, I will not be exaggerating if I say that ninety percent of them should be disregarded, as they are nothing but rootless delusions.

The common people say (for example): "She is a lucky girl, and this girl is unlucky". This statement is meaningless, as Allah exists and everything is up to His decree, and the word luck does not exist, yet, it is a matter of a good match or a bad match (between husband and wife), it is a matter of things going easy or difficult, and it is a matter of bestowing or disciplining, and there are reasons for each of the two cases, but to refer any hardship to no reasons which lead to it, is a rejection of Allah's words, Allah says:

(And whatever of misfortune befalls you, it is because of what your hands have earned. And He pardons much.)

[Ash-Shura, 30]

((What is the matter with you?) When a single disaster smites you, although you smote (your enemies) with one twice as great, you say: "From where does this come to us?" Say (to them), "It is from yourselves (because of your evil deeds).")

[Aal-'Imran, 165]

Whatever book or saying contradicts with Islam is ignorance:

The most important thing in this lecture is that we have the revelation from the creator of heavens and earth, we have His book (Quran) to which falsehood cannot come from before it or behind it, and we have the interpretation of this book (Quran) by the infallible (Muhammad PBUH) who does not speak of (his own) desire. Thus, any statement you read, any word you hear, or any book you peruse, which conflict with the words of Allah the Almighty and the authentic Sunnah of his messenger, are not but ignorance, though the words might be sparkling, attractive and tickling to the desires of people.

Upon exposing her body, walking in the streets in her best look and showing all her attractions, the woman will be tickling the desires of people by such acts, and this will corrupt life and make it full of deviations and temptations.

The topic of this lecture, dear brothers, is related to that aspect. The terms sorcery, fraud, lying, defamation, delusion, and ignorance are our topic for today because every week I get a phone call from a person asking a question like the following: I want to dispel a black magic from such and such person, and bring out all the demons within, so where should I go? Who is the Shaikh I should resort to?

The prophet PBUH is not addressed by his name:

Firstly: let me tell you that the unseen was hindered from this person who is Muhammad PBUH, and whom is considered as the master of mankind by all Muslims, and who is the beloved by the Haq (Allah), and who is the human in the first rank, and who is in the highest levels and no one could reach his level among mankind starting with Adam till the Day of Resurrection, and by whose name Allah swore twice, and even Allah addressed him by saying:

(O Prophet!)

[Al-Ahzab, 59]

(O Messenger (Muhammad)!)

[Al-Ma'idah', 67]

Allah didn't address him by saying: O Muhammad, whereas in so many other Ayahs Allah addressed prophets by their names:

("O Yahya (John)!)

[Maryam, 12]

("O Zakariya (Zachariah)!)

[Maryam, 7]

("O 'Iesa (Jesus)!)

[Aal-'Imran, 55]

("O Musa (Moses)!)

[An-Naml, 9]

Allah didn't say: O Muhammad, yet He said:

(O Prophet (Muhammad)!)

[At-Tahrim, 9]

(O Messenger (Muhammad)!)

[Al-Ma'idah', 67]

The prophet didn't know the unseen, so it is only normal that no other person would know it

This honored person, who reached Sidrat-ul-Muntaha [lote-tree of the utmost boundary (beyond which none can pass)], and who is the closest creature and the most beloved to Allah the Almighty, was asked by Allah in the Quran to say:

(If I had the knowledge of the Ghaib (unseen), I should have secured for myself an abundance of wealth, and no evil should have touched me.)

[Al-A'raf, 188]

And in another Ayah he was asked to say:

(Say (O Muhammad): "I possess no power of benefit or hurt to myself)

[Al-A'raf, 188]

And in another Ayah:

(Say: "I fear, if I disobey my Lord, the torment of a Mighty Day.")

[Al-An'am, 15]

So if the master of mankind and the most beloved to Allah possesses no power of benefit or hurt to himself, then it is rather likely that other people don't possess that power, besides, the prophet PBUH didn't know the unseen, furthermore, he abstained from disobeying Allah lest he will be punished by the torment of a Mighty day as it was mentioned in the following Ayah:

(Say: "I fear, if I disobey my Lord, the torment of a Mighty Day.")

[Al-An'am, 15]

((I will not disfigure them so that Allah will not disfigure me, even if I were a prophet))

[Was mentioned in relic]

Accordingly, how does a fraudulent sorcerer dare to give you the impression that he knows the unseen? How can he mislead you by the claim of bringing about benefit or affliction to you? This is the first thing to tackle in this lecture.

The following Ayahs refute the false claims of sorcerers:

Please memorize the following Ayahs:

(If I had the knowledge of the Ghaib (unseen), I should have secured for myself an abundance of wealth, and no evil should have touched me.)

[Al-A'raf, 188]

Allah asks him to say in another Ayah:

(Say (O Muhammad): "I possess no power of benefit or hurt to myself)

[Al-A'raf, 188]

And in another Ayah:

(Say: "I fear, if I disobey my Lord, the torment of a Mighty Day.")

[Al-An'am, 15]

All the false claims of sorcerers, magicians, soothsayers, liars, tergiversators, swindlers, frauds and those who make a living through the religion, are refuted in the light of the previous Ayahs.

Imam Al Shaf'ee said: "I would rather make a living through dance than making a living through the religion".

Verify those who make a living through the religion, have purchased a little gain with the Ayat of Allah, and will be severely punished because they carried on trade the most sacred thing that people have, they carried on trade people's aqidah, people's religion, and people's destination, hence:

((O Ibn Umar, hold on to your religion, your religion is your flesh and blood, take it from the pious ones, and don't take it from those who are deviated))

[Was mentioned by Ibn Al Jawzee in "Al Illal Al Mutanahiayh" number 186]

Sorcerers use the devil to cure people claiming to use Quran:

A sorcerer from Darfur, a region in Sudan, said and admitted after he repented to Allah that he was a misguided and misleading sorcerer and swindler. In part of his confessions after his repentance he said that he used Al Jinn in his satanic rituals and bluffing, and he added: "Sorcerers claim to cure people, and they give the impression that they use Quran for that purpose, but it is not but a false claim, for they are using the devil who is using them in return and making them do shameful and Haram acts, like dishonoring the Quran, writing Quranic verses by menstruation blood or urine near the private parts of a human being, and the devil even gives the permission to this sorcerer to help him misguide people, and after doing all these shameful acts, the devil will accept this sorcerer and help him mislead people by asking them to dishonor the Quran, abandon praying (Salah), stop fasting, and commit incest, and actually, large numbers of sorcerers are committing adultery on a daily basis.

A relative to a brother of ours is a sorcerer, and our brother told me unbelievable acts that he does out of his immoral and debaucherous nature, one of which is that he spends a month or two impure, without offering any Salah or any act of worship, moreover, he used to commit adultery with every naive lady who resorts to him to seek a solution for her problem.

This is a reality, and their presentable appearance disguises the devilish nature they have.

Those are not but sorcerers, swindlers, liars, deceivers and they use the religion to make a living besides taking advantage of the simple-mindedness and naivety of Muslims.

This is a story of a husband who was kidding with his wife by saying that he will marry a second wife, and though it was nothing but a joke, the wife went to a swindler Shaikh to write her a Hijab (Talisman) to help her. This is exactly what is taking place, and I am bringing forth these stories from real life that I live among a large scale of Muslims who were not enlightened by knowledge.

Those swindlers give people these Talismans that are written in meaningless words, and they perform moves, say murmurs and ask for stuff like a white rooster and other funny details for which Allah has sent down no authority, not to mention the huge amounts of money they ask for.

This sorcerer is a very rich man (the one from Sudan), and his wealth is huge, he owns eight cars, hefty wealth, he is in the coffee business, in the perfume business, in the soap business, and he owns millions, I ask Allah to accept his repentance. This sorcerer said in his shocking confessions that he had learnt the voodoo practice and black magic in West Africa, specifically in Cameron and Chad, and after his repentance, he started to dispel all talismans and voodoo spells with the right Quranic ways which he knows very well. The talismans provide (according to him) a shield to protect from weapons and snakes' bites, and other spells which use uncompleted verses of Quran with satanic meaningless words which are taught to human by Jinn. All these practices were done by this swindler fraud, and all his wealth he collected from sorcery was destroyed by Allah the Almighty in six months only.

Every affliction on earth is a result of a sin:

His customers (so to speak) are nothing but drug dealers who ask him to write talismans to protect them from being busted by customs' agents while they are smuggling drugs like Heroin and Cocaine. The other type of customers are married women, as wives or fellow wives ask him to write talismans for them in order to gain the husband's love and prevent him from marrying another wife. If the wife were to apply the prophetic Sunnah by guarding her honor, offering the five prayers, fasting Ramadan and being submissive to her husband, she would be admitted to the paradise of her Lord:

((Understand O woman (Go and tell others), and inform the other women. Indeed a woman's perfection of her relationship with her husband, her seeking his pleasure, and doing that which he approves of is equivalent to all of that (i.e. Al Jihad in the cause of Allah).))

[Al Baihakee in Shuab Al Iman, by Asmaa Bint Yazeed Al Ansariyah]

The ironic thing is that I have read a book written by a brother, who used to work as a manager of one of the prisons in our country, in which he mentioned sixty three crimes and he followed every crime by the sin that was the reason behind it. Verify there is no violation committed on earth but is a result of a sin, and there is no sin committed but is a result of ignorance, and ignorance is the worst enemy of mankind, and the ignorant hurts himself in ways with which his enemy is unable to hurt him.

Therefore, most people who make benefit of this swindler are the drug dealers and wives who are Afraid that their husbands will marry a second wife. In the book I've read which was authored by a manager of a prison in our country, he mentioned that there are sorceresses as well. there are female sorcerers and not only males, and there are female swindlers, and witches who also take large amounts of money and write talismans, say murmurs and meaningless words, and unreadable writings. These female swindlers are smart enough to ask the wife to be clean, neat and good looking in front of her husband and to obey, serve and honor him, and by applying these instructions (which are not but prophetic instructions) the wife will really gain her husband's love but she would think that she gained that love because of the talisman she has got from the sorceress, but actually she gained that love because of these prophetic instructions, from being good to her husband, from being polite with him, from being submissive to him, and from guarding her honor.

Back to the repentant sorcerer who said: "Voodoo has nothing to do with religion, but it uses it as a disguise and as an entrapping tool, and the sorcerer wears a green turban and not a white one in order to give the impression that he is wali (very pious man), while he is the biggest swindler, fraud and adulterer.

Black magic has nothing to do with the religion or Quran:

Allow me to speak out the bitter truth, and as I see it, it is important that the record of this lecture should be available to every Muslim, as sorcery is widely spread beyond any limits, but you might not know this truth.

By Allah, I get complaints on a weekly basis from people about sorcerers and sorceresses, and swindlers and female swindlers who commit all major sins you can think of despite their religious appearance which deceives people.

((I am not a deceiver nor will I allow someone to deceive me))

This is an amazing statement, and it means that I am not malice to deceive others, and I am not gullible to be deceived, and this is how a believer should be, namely, he doesn't deceive others and doesn't let others deceive him. Back to the sorcerer who said that sorcery has nothing to do with religion or Quran, and he confessed that he learnt black magic from an Indian sheikh whom he met on a border land between Nigeria and Chad, and this person happened to be claim to teach people perfection', and who pretends to be mystical.

These sorcerers use weird Syriac names like "Kharfoosh" which are meaningless and very far from the Arabic language, and these Syriac words are nothing but the names of the worst ones among Jinn whom they are dealing with, and in order to give themselves loftiness, they pretend to be in the presence of Allah the Almighty.

This kind of sorcery is prevailed among Muslims, and in that respect, the prophet PBUH said:

((I have left among you two matters by holding fast to which, you shall never be misguided: the Book of God and the Sunna of His Prophet))

[Al Hakem in "Mustadrek", by Abu Hurairah]

What is right is everything in correspondence with the Quran, and what is ignorance and wrong is everything that conflicts with the Quran. There is a phobia among people that someone might cast a spell on them, but listen to what Allah the Almighty says:

(but they could not thus harm anyone except by Allah's Leave.)

[Al-Baqarah, 102]

("Certainly, you shall have no authority over My slaves)

[Al-Hijr, 42]

But when someone is heedless, is away from Allah the Almighty, and is indulged in lusts and deviations, he will be affected by a magic of a sorcerer. I don't deny the existence of black magic, Allah says:

(Say: "I seek refuge with (Allah) the Lord of the daybreak, "From the evil of what He has created; "And from the evil of the darkening (night) as it comes with its darkness; (or the moon as it sets or goes away). "And from the evil of the witchcrafts when they blow in the knots, "And from the evil of the envier when he envies.")

[Al-Falaq, 1-5]

The witches are the ones who blow in the knots. One of the senses of this Ayah is that the first purpose of the sorcerer is to sabotage the relation between the husband and wife, which should be strong amongst family members as Allah has decreed, and the sorcerer does that by giving the wife the impression that her husband does not love her and that he will get married to a second wife, and as a result, this wife mistreats her husband, and in return, the husband will hate her, and thus she thinks that his hatred is because of a spell that is cast on him not from her carelessness.

Talismans are meaningless and have nothing to do with religion:

Actually there are a lot of details in that essay, and I am conveying to you the headlines only. This sorcerer said: "We had an agreement with Jinn in cases of having a rich customer by saying to them: cure his sickness for a while, and with that we deceive the patient in order to pay us money.

In other cases, when a woman comes to us saying that her husband wants to marry another woman, we ask her things demanded by Jinn, like bringing hair from certain parts of her husband's body, or his nails, or the dirt that he steps on, then the Jinn ask for a certain condition, like to write Allah's words with excrement that is mixed with something else, then the paper will be coiled, and the wife will be asked to bury it in a cemetery or other certain places, and I for one have done a lot of evil charms like this for boys and girls, and we had done (me and Jinn) the unbelievable in that respect."

Then he added: "a Lot of people wear talismans for certain purposes, some of which are to protect oneself from envy, from bullets, and from poisonous insects, however, these talismans have nothing to do with Quran or prophetic Sunnah as it was proved in most cases, moreover, these talismans are meaningless, they do not belong to the Quran, the Sunnah or anything else, and they are nothing but lying, swindling and imposition."

He also said: "After leaving that world (black magic) and resorting to Allah and declaring my repentance, the Satan started to threaten me. I was very rich, I owned eight cars and huge financial holdings, but I got sick and my children as well, which wasted my wealth and money". He used to own ninety three cows as well, most of which died, hence, Allah has punished him severely.

Repentance and following the divine method solve Muslims' problems:

Dear brothers, I assume that I am addressing the elite of people in the sight of Allah, and I don't suspect that any of you dear brothers can possibly deal with those people, but I also consider each one of you as an ambassador of this great religion to those around him, to his elementary educated relatives who are limited minded, and who have problems which might be solved by resorting to medical aid or by paying Sadaqa (Alms-giving), but instead, they resort to sorcerers to solve them.

There will be always domestic issues between the wife and the husband, and if only the wife knows her Lord, and follows His right path, her husband would love her, so instead of solving these domestic issues by resorting to the Islamic law and the exalted prophetic Sunnah, wives resort to a swindler sorcerer.

Allah is my witness that I hear on weekly basis that one or two persons resort to those sorcerers to solve there so called "problems", though the latter can be solved by a sincere repentance, and by following the method of Allah the Almighty.

The essay has so many details that I will disregard, as they are of no importance to us, but believe me, a large scale of Muslims resort to those sorcerers when they suffer from a social, financial, or emotional problem, or when they fear a potential threat, though Allah the Almighty is clear in his Quran when He says:

(And thus We do deliver the believers (who believe in the Oneness of Allah, abstain from evil and work righteousness).)

[Al-Anbiya', 88]

Allah supports believers and protects them:

(Verily, those who say: "Our Lord is Allah (Alone)," and then they Istaqamu , on them the angels will descend (at the time of their death) (saying): "Fear not, nor grieve! But receive the glad tidings of Paradise which you have been promised! "We have been your friends in the life of this world and are (so) in the Hereafter. Therein you shall have (all) that your inner-selves desire, and therein you shall have (all) for which you ask for. "An entertainment from (Allah), the Oft-Forgiving, Most Merciful.")

[Fussilat, 30-32]

Allah the Almighty eases the heart of the believer, and when He told us about our Master Yunus (Jonah) He said:

(And (remember) Dhan-Nun (Jonah), when he went off in anger, and imagined that We shall not punish him (i.e. the calamities which had befallen him)! But he cried through the darkness (saying): La ilaha illa Anta [none has the right to be worshipped but You (O Allah)], Glorified (and Exalted) are You [above all that (evil) they associate with You]. Truly, I have been of the wrong-doers.")

[Al-Anbiya', 87]

Allah the Almighty also says:

(Then if there comes to you guidance from Me, then whoever follows My Guidance shall neither go astray, nor fall into distress and misery.)

[Ta-Ha, 123]

(and whoever follows My Guidance, there shall be no fear on them, nor shall they grieve.)

[Al-Baqarah, 38]

Allah the Almighty also says:

(and verily, Allah is with the believers.)

[Al-Anfal, 19]

He is with them, giving them support, prosperity, victory, and protection, thus lot of Ayahs ease the heart of the believer:

(and (as for) the believers it was incumbent upon Us to help (them).)

[Ar-Rum, 47]

(So wait patiently (O Muhammad) for the Decision of your Lord, for verily, you are under Our Eyes)

[At-Tur, 48]

The Quran and Sunna solve Muslims' problems not black magic:

Is it acceptable that the words of the creator of universes ease your heart o believer, yet you resort to sorcerers, magicians, swindlers, liars, opportunists and religion dealers? Don't underestimate the sorcerer, as he is shrewd and will give you a satisfying appearance of his and murmurs like: "Glory be to Allah", or "O, son, God bless you", and the like of religious sayings and false loftiness, while he is not but a first class liar and swindler Hence, you should be aware of all that, and take the following statement of our Master Umar as a motto:

((I am not a deceiver nor I will allow someone to deceive me))

moreover, deal with your problems according to Quran and Sunnah, the prophet PBUH said:

((Cure the patients amongst you by charity))

[Baihaquee in Al Sunnan Al Kubra, by Abudullah Ibn Mas'ood]

In regard of illness, of course charity comes after treatment and taking expedients, as you should go to the best doctors, take medication as prescribed and then pay charity, and Allah will meet your needs.

In regard of cordiality between the husband and wife, the solution is in repentance, and if any wife repents to Allah sincerely, brings to perfection her religious status, offers her religious duties, and establishes a connection with Allah the Almighty, Allah would have created affection and mercy between her and her husband that will not be affected by any accidental incidents.

Hence, cure is within the Quran and Sunnah, however, we should avoid other kind of misperception with which some people consider certain Surats or Ayahs as cure for certain illnesses, like considering such Surah for headache, and such Surah for bringing married couple together, and so forth. This misperception is another side of swindling and lying. Quran is a guiding frame reference (for Muslims) and not medication or sedative pills, and it is enough that you follow the Quran in order to fully reap its fruits.

We should be cautious against sorcerers and swindlers:

Again, I am positive that none of you will do so, thus, whom am I lecturing? This lecture is for those around you, for people with limited minds, for people with poor comprehension, and for those who didn't seek knowledge from authentic sources and are easily affected by what people say.

Each person has someone around him, who resorts to sorcerers, and how many they are, and they are everywhere, better yet, people subconsciously guide people to them by saying for example: "the solution for not bearing children is at such person". By Allah who is the only god, I have received a letter from a sister about a person in another country, who is very famous for treating infertility, and if this person was positive that the problem is from the husband, he would commit adultery with her (so that she bear a child), and she gives birth to a child who does not belong to her husband.

I have so many letters from honorable sisters who insisted on mentioning that in this lecture, as relatives of theirs were victims to this swindler and adulterer, so beware dear sisters, as he (and the like of him) might resort to anesthesia, a dark room, incense and murmurs, and all of which are not but falsity, falsity, falsity.

I am conveying to you what I know honestly and sincerely in order to avoid being victims of sorcery, murmurs, superstitions, misguidance, and blackmailing. This repentant sorcerer (I have mentioned earlier), used to own eight cars, ninety three cows, six trucks for coffee business, trading of special kind, and a luxurious life. He used to bring fresh fruits by airplanes every day to eat them with his wives (and one of them asked for a divorce after his repentance), and he used to have a huge income from sorcery, lying, and swindling, whereas the prophet PBUH was poor:

((The prophet PBUH said to me one day: O, Aishah, do you have anything (to be eaten)? She said: I said: O, Allah's messenger, we have nothing to eat, so he said: I will fast then))

[Muslim, by Aishah]

I ask Allah the Almighty to protect all of us from those liars, but the most important thing in this lecture is to know that Satan will never give help to a sorcerer unless he leaves performing prayers (Salah) and observing fast (Sawm), and write Quran by excrement and menstruation blood near to the private parts, and this manifested the correlation between human and Jinn. Verify, every relation with Jinn is Haram (forbidden), and whoever uses black magic is charged with infidelity, and let me ask you: will you ever believe that Jinn could be religious? No way. Dealing with Jinn is absolutely Haram in the full sense of the word.
